

How to Study the Bible

The Study of an Event

I. LOCATING THE EVENT IN SCRIPTURE

A. Using the Scripture

1. Find ALL accounts of the event.
2. The event could be found primarily in Exodus and Numbers, yet you could find key verses in the Psalms, Hebrews, or somewhere else.

B. Using Other Resources

1. One of the best resources would be the Treasury of Scripture Knowledge.
2. There are also resources that deal with specific events found in scripture.
3. Commentaries might lend some help in the research of an event.

II. LOCATE INFORMATION CONCERNING THE EVENT

A. Details of the Event

1. What are the individual details of the event?
2. Do some details seem to contradict other details? If so, what is the solution?

B. People

1. Who associated with the event?
2. Who is the major person connected to this event? How does this relate to other events involving this person?
3. What is the role of each member of the trinity in the event?

C. Places

1. What places are associated with the event?
2. Was the place prophesied in scripture?

D. Time

1. What is the timeframe in which the event occurred?
2. What other events occurred at the same time?

E. Prophecy

1. What prophecies were given concerning this event?
2. Have all of the prophecies concerning this event been fulfilled?
