2. The grace age gifts
 - a. Three views
 - (1) That apostolic gifts have continued unaltered
 - (2) That the gifts have been replaced by ministries, callings, etc.
 - (3) That the gifts have been transformed from the apostolic gifts to the grace age gifts—the view presented in this class
 - b. The purposes for the change—Why did God not continue the apostolic gifts as He originally gave them?
 - (1) The completed Bible removed the need for gifts of confirmation (Mark 16:17-20; 1 Corinthians 13:8-10); there is no longer any need to confirm the divine authority of the spoken word since we now have the written word as a check on the truth of the speaker.
 - (2) The transition from Jew to Gentile removed the need for the sign gifts (1 Corinthians 1:22). God deals especially with the Jewish people through signs; but in this age, He is working through the Gentiles.
 - c. The character of the changes
 - (1) From gifts of confirmation (confirming the spoken word) to gifts of edification (Romans 12:6-8)
 - (2) From gifts given in an immediate and supernatural way from the Spirit of God to gifts given according to the grace of God

- working in the believer (Romans 12:3, 6; Ephesians 3:7; Ephesians 4:7-8) and practiced according to the measure of faith in the believer (Romans 12:3, 6)
- d. The working of the grace age gifts
 - (1) A gift is something that is given; something transferred from one person to another. Both the sign gifts and the grace gifts fit this definition.
 - (2) The grace gifts come as abilities given to us by God according to His purpose for us (2 Timothy 1:9).
 - (3) These gifts of God's grace can appear at different times: in childhood or later in life. They can even appear before salvation since they are part of God's eternal plan for us. At other times, they appear when the need arises.
 - (4) Though their appearance may not be immediate and supernatural as with the sign gifts, they are still just as much the working of God in our lives. They are the result of His grace working in us to the performance of His will for His service.
 - (5) We still must decide to use these gifts for the Lord. He enables them by the working of His grace, but we must use them by the operation of faith.
 - (6) Finally, they are never to be a source of pride. Since they are given, we have nothing to glory in when we have received them (Romans 12:3; 1 Corinthians 4:6-7).
 3. The ministry of the apostle Paul

 - (3) He was the apostle of the Gentiles (Romans 11:13).
